The Bergen County Prosecutor's Office College Intern Program

The BCPO hires qualified candidates who are rising seniors at a four year accredited college. The internships are unpaid and students are encouraged to try to obtain credit from their schools. The internship runs June 6, 2022 to August 5, 2022. Students will be required to work approximately 24 hours per week. Interns are expected to dress in business attire and conduct themselves in conformity with the standards of the office. Interns will report to either 2 Bergen County Plaza -Hackensack or the Galda Building in Paramus.

Responsibilities vary according to assignment but generally interns participate in three core activities-

- 2. Observation: interns are encouraged to attend court as often as possible. They are also included in appropriate meetings and interviews.
- 3. Interaction: interns will speak to attorneys, police officers, victim /witness advocates and clerical staff to gain from their collective personal experiences. It may also be possible to have them speak with members of the Sheriffs's Department and a Superior Court Judge.

Additionally, interns will receive assistance with resume' writing and interviewing skills to assist them in seeking future employment. To apply, please return the following application with all supporting documentation as well as a resume and cover letter. Applications will be accepted September 1, 2021 through December 1, 2021.
